Re: Application of Cumberland Cellular Partnership for Issuance of a Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity to Construct a Cell Site (Alligator) in Rural Service Area #5 (Russell) of the Commonwealth of Kentucky - Case No. 2006-00052

Dear Mr. Wright:

We are legal counsel to the applicant in the above reference matter, and it is in this capacity that we write this letter as a status report.

Cumberland Cellular Partnership ("Cumberland Cellular") filed its application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity on March 3, 2006 with the Public Service Commission of the Commonwealth of Kentucky (the "Commission").

According to the Commission's website docket, six (6) letters of concern were filed with the Commission by various property owners. Those letters of concern were filed by the following persons.

1. Tracer and Stephanie Bryant
2. Louis E. Fister, Jr.
3. Michael A. Reuter
4. David and Gabrielle Gnadinger
5. John and Deborah W. Miranda (The Deborah W. Miranda Living Trust)
6. Anthony Miranda (Indian Hills Sportsman Club)

At this time, the Commission has responded to four (4) of the six (6) letters of concern giving their authors 20 days to intervene, namely: (1) Tracer and Stephanie Bryant; (2) Louis E. Fister, Jr.; (3) Michael A. Reuter; and (4) David and Gabrielle Gnadinger. On March 28, 2006,

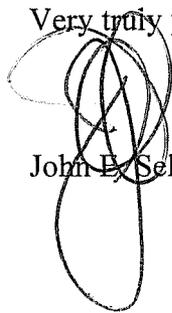

Dale Wright, Esq.

David and Gabrielle Gnadinger filed with the Commission their request for intervention in this matter. On March 31, 2006, the Commission issued an order granting full intervention to Mr. and Mrs. Gnadinger.

The Commission has not responded to the letters of concern filed by John and Deborah W. Miranda (Deborah W. Miranda Living Trust) and Anthony Miranda (Indian Hills Sportsman Club).

Thank you, and if you have any questions with respect to this matter, please call me.

Very truly yours,
